STUDENT HANDBOOK

National University of Computer & Emerging Sciences

FOREWORD

The National University of Computer & Emerging Sciences (FAST-NCES) offers its students an enabling environment to exploit their potential and talent in the best possible manner.

Admission to FAST-NUCES is not an end in itself, but the start of a new journey towards learning, development, growth and self-exploration. The University expects its students and graduates to be academically accomplished, professionally apt, and ethically prepared. The University aims to transform its students into the leaders of tomorrow. The objective will be achieved through their professional development and personal growth.

The Student Handbook encompasses the academic rules, values and traditions, professional standards, social norms, and principles, which we at FAST-NU religiously pursue. We expect our students to follow this set of ethos and values with a willing devotion. This would enable you to co-exist with fellows, follow the policies, and abide by the rules at the University.

We also envision our students making all the stakeholders—the university, the faculty, and their parents—proud by their achievements. They have at hand the very tough challenge of coming up to the high-performance expectations and the high academic standards of the University. With this, we reiterate our faith in your competence and believe in your growth.

In the end, I would like to address a few words to the new members of the FAST-NU community.

While cherishing your good luck to have made it to one of the premier seats of higher learning in the country, be mindful of the enormous responsibility that you have accepted by joining FAST-NU. Let your teachers and the alumni of the University serve as your role models. Approach them for advice, for help, and for guidance, whenever and wherever you need to. You will find the entire University on your side to support y'ou in your cause to achieve excellence.

The management and the faculty are always there to facilitate your stay at the University towards a rewarding future. Welcome to the FAST Lane!

Allah be with you!

Dr. Aftab Ahmad Maroof
Rector

CODE OF CONDUCT

National University of Computer & Emerging Sciences endeavours to inculcate in its students' intellectual diversity, self-motivation, critical thinking, and inquiry, research-oriented approach, capacity for leadership, and community oriented, ethically guided high sense of professionalism. University aims to equip students to meet the challenges of the 21st century. The University expects its students to strive towards acquisition of attributes that befit the national objectives. These attributes, in turn, should be reflected in their everyday behaviour, attitude and dress. To achieve these goals all students are obliged to strictly follow the Code of Conduct laid down below. The University expects the students to familiarize themselves with the information provided within this handbook.

1. The University takes pride in maintaining a peaceful, and conducive educational environment for Students and Staff.
2. The University aims to transform students into professionals, responsible citizens, and good human-beings.
3. The student body is advised to regard the campus as a second home and avoid any kind of vandalism. This will in turn benefit the student body financially.
4. The University believes in treating everyone equally with respect. No favoritism is rendered on the financial, religious, social, and political background.
5. Any individual who attempts to disrupt the community structure of the university will be liable for appropriate disciplinary action.

6. Students should refrain from actions that might damage the reputation of the University. They must also avoid any conduct that may lead to the disruption of any academic program /activity of the Campus.
7. Students will show tolerance, understanding, and respect for the rights of others. In case of any misunderstanding with peers or University management, etc., discussions and exchange of views within the framework of decency and decorum would be the desirable course to follow. Threatening behaviour to fellow students, faculty, staff, or the University as an institution could cause irrevocable dismissal from the University.
8. Students will be respectful to members of the opposite gender and will refrain from any behaviour that can be interpreted by others as 'gender harassment'.
9. Students are strictly reminded that gender mixing is permissible only within the accepted social and cultural norms of the society. Faculty tolerance should not be construed as an approval to undue intimacy or unacceptable proximity, openly or in isolated areas. Girls and boys are not allowed to sit next to each other in the classrooms, labs, and library or outside.

The expected cultural norm is as per the Ayat of Surah Nur
(Ayat 30-31)

"Tell the believing men to lower their gaze and be modest. That is purer for them. Lo! Allah is aware of what they do.'
'And tell the believing women to lower their gaze and be modest, and to display of their adornment only that which is apparent, and to draw their veils over their bosoms.'" Pickthal

10. It is the responsibility of all to keep the Campus environment clean and tidy. Therefore, no littering or trash should be carelessly thrown or left on the Campus premises. The designated waste bins should be used for the purpose.
11. The students are advised to refrain from any damage to the University fixtures/furniture including Venetian blinds, scribbling/carving on desks, writing on walls, and misusing lab equipment, etc.
12. Smoking is strictly prohibited on campuses. Anyone found smoking must pay a fine, repeated cases may be liable for disciplinary action.
13. Students are advised to switch off mobiles in classrooms, examination halls, labs, and library so as not to disrupt the calm of the said places.
14. Political activities or campaigns are strictly prohibited within the campus premises.
15. Activities tantamount to spreading hatred or unethical values on political, ethnic, or religious basis are strictly prohibited.
16. Students are advised to strictly follow the code of conduct on-the-field and off-the-field while taking part in sports and other extra-curricular activities. Students are expected to exhibit exemplary behaviour, especially while representing the University in an activity or competition.
17. Matters of indiscipline would be referred to the Campus Discipline Committee, which is authorized to reprimand or check any indiscipline. Parents of students who disobey authority and violate the code of conduct will be called to the university. Disciplinary Committee may suggest action to be taken for breaching code of conduct by the student.

18. It is generally recommended that students only take the recommended course load per semester (5 courses for BS and 3 courses for MS). This keeps the workload manageable and allows student to perform reasonably well in a semester.

19. Late submissions in assessment are not accepted and strongly discouraged.

20. Dress Code:

The students of the University are expected to dress keeping in view the local cultural values.

- a. The students are not allowed to wear shorts or sleeveless shirts. The dress should not have any scripts or images, which appear to be provocative or indecent.
- b. The students should not wear tight or see-through clothes.
- c. The students are not expected to put on heavy make-up or expensive jewellery.
- d. Clothes with photographs of any celebrity/political personality/or with unethical printed words are strictly not allowed.
- e. Clothes should not pretend to have any influence towards any political or religious party.

21. Students must refrain from cheating, plagiarism, lying, stealing, and gender harassment, in any setting of the Campus.

Cheating encompasses the following:

- a. The wilful giving or receiving of an unauthorized, unfair, dishonest, or unscrupulous advantage in academic work over other students.
- b. The above may be accomplished by any means whatsoever, including but not limited to the following: fraud; duress; deception; theft; trick; talking; signs; gestures; copying from another student; and the unauthorized use of study aids, memoranda, books, data, or other information.
- c. Attempted cheating.
- d. Calling proxy attendance.

Plagiarism encompasses the following:

- a. Presenting work of others as one's own work without proper acknowledgement or citation. The work could broadly include words, opinions, and contents. (This includes material published on the Internet).
- b. Borrowing the sequence of ideas, the arrangement of material, or the pattern of thought of someone else without proper acknowledgment.
- c. Using Generative AI tools to generate contents and claim or present the generated contents as the student's own work.

Lying encompasses the following:

Willful and knowledgeable telling of an untruth, as well as any form of deceit, attempted deceit, or fraud in an oral or written statement relating to academic work. This includes but is not limited to:

- a. Lying to administration and faculty members.
- b. Falsifying any university document by mutilation, addition, or deletion.
- c. Lying to Discipline Committee members and advisors during investigation and hearing. This may constitute a second charge, with the committee members who acted as judges during that specific hearing acting as accusers.

Stealing encompasses the following:

Taking or appropriating without the permission to do so, and with the intent to keep or to wrongfully use the property belonging to any member of the campus or any property located on the university campus. This includes but is not limited to misuse of university computers and other lab resources.

Gender harassment apart from others includes:

- a. Interference into a student's right to learn, study, work, achieve, or participate in the Campus activities in a comfortable and supportive atmosphere.
- b. Impolite or indecent comments, signs, gestures or looks, and facial expressions.
- c. Spreading inappropriate rumours about any student.
- d. Attempts at starting personal conversation or taking undue liberty.
- e. Advances to harass, coerce, or intimidate others.

The university will not tolerate any violation of these norms. Any student faced with such situation should contact the Campus Harassment Committee about it without any inhibition, reluctance, or fear.

22. Social Media Etiquettes

- a. Your postings should always be courteous. Remember that in most cases, content posted will be public and it may not be possible to remove it later and can also be reposted on other platforms. It could be traceable.
- b. Posts on social media:
 - i. Should not include confidential information about an individual, or an organization.
 - ii. Should not reveal intellectual property owned by others.
 - iii. Should not violate the Code of Conduct of the university.
 - iv. Should not use someone else's images or written content without written permission and/or without acknowledgement.
- c. It is also important that the content is accurate and does not deliver unintended message on behalf of the University. Written permission must be taken before posting anything on behalf of the university. In case of a mistake, the revised content should be uploaded after due correction.
- d. Follow the rules related to the positing guidelines of online classes. Ensure to read them every time, as they can vary from class to class.
- e. Students are not allowed to run social media spaces/pages as official handles of the university.
- f. The university follows a zero-tolerance policy towards violation of university's ethical code of conduct guidelines on social media, including posting of objectionable content/ images, memes, ridiculing or humiliating students, staff, faculty, or administration.
- g. Violators shall be liable to disciplinary action.

I - ACADEMIC RULES & REGULATIONS

Academic rules and regulations are available at the following web link:

<http://nu.edu.pk/public/downloads/Academic-Rules-%20Undergrad-Programs.pdf>

A subset of the rules and regulations of the University is provided here for ready reference. All activities of the University shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the University. In case of ambiguity or non-existence of rules, the final authority for interpretation and decision shall rest with the University.

II - FINANCIAL RULES

Fee Structure and Mode of Payment

The fee is charged on Semester basis, and it becomes due two weeks earlier than the start of a semester at the time of course registration.

Fees are paid in the bank through bank challan available in Accounts Office/Flex.

All fees are non-Refundable.

All fees are non-refundable (except security deposit) and the University reserves the right to review the fee structure from time to time. Any revision of fees would be uniformly applicable to all students of the University.

Financial Assistance (Loan)

FAST, being a non-profit organization, charges subsidized fees from all its students. Realizing that even the subsidized fee may not be affordable for some of its students. FAST tries to arrange financial assistance in the form of loan for such indigent students. This assistance is subject to renewal every semester in the light of the student's academic performance and financial need. The financial assistance is limited to tuition fees only and is discontinued if the student's CGPA falls below 2.00 for undergraduate degree and 2.5 for graduate degree.

The repayment of loan starts three months after graduation or getting a job, whichever is earlier. The total amount must be repaid within a period of four years after graduation. Students are required to sign to this effect.

All those who are admitted and are in real need of financial assistance should apply on the prescribed Financial Aid form. A notice to this effect will be posted on the notice board.

Students' Services

The University may utilize the services of its senior students in different activities of the University. Such students are paid for rendering their services. Preference is normally given to indigent students.

Scholarships

Merit Scholarships

Merit scholarship is awarded to the Top THREE position holders of each Board. This scholarship is available for four years of un-interrupted studies with full course load and is equal to the full tuition fee. Continuation of merit scholarship is subject to maintaining semester GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Top Three position holders in each semester

The university awards certificates and cash prizes to those undergraduate students, who are the top three in their department. Students are selected from each of the four years of every degree program. Only those students are eligible who have undertaken the prescribed course load and have SGPA of 3.00 or higher.

Sindh Government Endowment Board Scholarships

This is offered on need-cum-merit to rural and urban students in both Undergraduate and Graduate level for all disciplines. Scholarship covers full tuition fee for entire duration of the program, renewable every year. The scholarship quota for rural sector is 60% and for Urban is 40%.

ICT Scholarships and Balochistan Endowment Scholarships

Punjab Educations Endowment Fund (PEEF) Scholarships

HEC Scholarships for MS and PhD students

The Higher Education Commission (HEC) provides liberal scholarships to students desirous of studying for the MS and PhD degrees at this university. The scholarship covers tuition fee, monthly stipend, and book allowance.

Other Scholarships

In addition to the above scholarships there are various community-based scholarships offered by various committees and foundations such as, Memon Community Scholarships, Bohra Community Scholarships, Hindu Community Scholarship, INFAQ Foundation scholarships, Agha Khan Foundation Scholarships, etc.

Assistantships

The University may utilize the services of its graduate students in its different activities. These students are compensated for rendering their services. Preference is normally given to indigent students.

Bank Loans

Bank Alfalah, Meezan Bank, Bank Islami and MCB offer loans to students.

III - DISCIPLINARY CONDUCT

a. Discipline

Students are expected to observe disciplinary standards of the University in all their dealings. Failure to meet these standards will require them to appear before a DDC/CDC, who may recommend a suitable action against the student.

The action may amount to suspension of studies for one or more semesters, expulsion from the University or disqualification from any academic honour such as award of gold medal, financial aid, scholarship, etc.

Any of the following will call for a disciplinary action:

1. Violation of the rules & regulations of the University.
2. Wilful defiance of University's authority whether alone or in association with others.
3. Involvement in activities that are against the interests and reputation of the University.
4. Use of unfair means or breach of norms.
5. Use of unfair means during the exam or any evaluation process used for academic purposes.
6. Improper behaviour in or outside the classroom.
7. Any act of dishonesty including submission of false documents and deliberate misreporting.
8. Association with actions harmful to good teaching environment.
9. Failure to meet the code of conduct as laid down by the University.

b. Academic Dishonesty

The minimum punishment for using unfair means is award of zero marks in that test, assignment, midterm, or final examination.

If the course instructor refers the matter to the Disciplinary Committee of the Department (DDC), then the minimum punishment will be award of 'F' grade in that course.

If the Head of Department refers the matter to the Disciplinary Committee of the Campus (CDC), then the minimum punishment will be award of 'F' grade in all the courses taken in that semester. The CDC may recommend suspension for one or two semesters or expulsion from the university.

IV - MIGRATION

Migration from NU to other Universities

A student may be allowed to transfer from this University to any other educational institution after obtaining Clearance from the University. Such transfer will result in closing of admission at this University. Such a student may be considered for re-admission, provided the following conditions are satisfied.

- The student has been pursuing studies in the same discipline he was enrolled at NUCES during the period of absence from the University.
- The request for re-admission is made within one year of the date of closing of admission. University will use its discretion in deciding about the transfer of credits from the migrated institution.

Change of Discipline: A student may apply for change of discipline subject to completion of certain requirements as per university policy.
